On-campus happenings...

TODAY: UBC Farm Trek 2009 - Help save UBC Farm

We'll march from the SUB to the UBC Farm to send a message to the University's board of governors that we want the farm to stay. The Trek will gather at the Student Union Building at 3:30 p.m. and trekkers will walk to the UBC Farm for a celebration with food and music, and a ceremonial planting. Free parking is available at UBC Farm anytime, and a free bus shuttle will take you from there to the Trek in progress between 3-6 p.m.

Thursday: Forum: Athens and Jerusalem: Philosophy and History Informing Christian Theology, A Dialogue.

Thursday April 9, 4-630pm, Chapel. Hans Boersma and Rikk Watts take to the podium for the first time to discuss, debate, and expound upon questions such as these: What is the relationship between scripture and tradition? What about the creeds and Fathers? Does Christian Theology need the Platonic tradition? What is the role of history in theology? It's the forum we've all been waiting for! Please note: Questions will be collected BEFORE the forum. If you have a particular question for Rikk, Hans, or both, please email them by Wed April 8, 6pm to munn.ryan@gmail.com.

Volunteer...

Regent College Graduation Weekend

Convocation, Monday, April 27, and Grad Tea, Sunday, April 26

Many, many volunteers are needed to serve in numerous ways as we celebrate and serve the Class of 2009 at Grad Tea & Convocation—ushers, greeters, parking attendants, gowners, child care attendants, clean-up crew, etc. This is YOUR opportunity to give generously – so be involved! Sign up today at Student Services.

Minstrels Needed: In celebration of the Class of 2009, we'd like to invite non-graduating students to provide the ambient music for the 200 guests that will be gathering in the Atrium for this year's GRAD TEA, Sunday April 26 – 3:00 to 5:00 pm. If you have a small instrumental group (or have been wanting to pull one together) and would enjoy sharing your good talents with our Graduates and their families & friends, then please speak with Sharon Forsyth, Alumni Office 604-221-3350 or sforsyth@regent-college.edu

Help incoming students this August! The Admissions Office is looking for Regent students, staff, and faculty to provide free housing for up to one week in the month of August for incoming students while they search for permanent housing. Meals are not expected. This can be a great solution for those of you who are going out of town for a holiday and are in need of a house/pet-sitter. For more information, please contact Cheryl at 604-221-3355, or housing@regent-college.edu. Thank you!

Are you going away for all or part of the summer? Would you like to rent your room/apartment/suite/house to a summer school student? If so, you can list your accommodation on the Regent Housing Database, as a short-term summer sublet. Contact Cheryl at housing@regent-college.edu , or 604-221-3355.

Lost: Round Stainless Steel Tiffin (Indian Lunch Container). Last seen in the Regent Atrium. Also, Wanted: Yoga Mat. Please contact: damianhinman@gmail.com

Capitalism Corner...

Wanna make some quick cash???

I am needing 4 people who would be willing to drive Summer School posters around to local churches. Approximately 8 hours of work per person, paying TA wages plus .45 cents per kilometre! The posters need to be delivered on either April 8th, 9th, 14th or 15th. Please contact Jodie Smith as soon as possible (international@regent-college.edu or 604-221-3365).

The Greensheet aims to provide the Regent community with information pertaining to the life of the school (events, deadlines, etc.), events of interest in the surrounding community, job and volunteer opportunities, and items for sale.

To make an announcement on the greensheet, please write it in the form of a short blurb, in 100 words or less (the shorter the better), paste it in the email body, and email it to greensheet@regent-college.edu. Deadline for submissions is noon Thursday of each week.
