'Boat Course' Guided Study Opportunity

Though the Regent Summer School 'Boat Course' - "Wilderness, Technology and Creation" - will not be offered this year, A Rocha Canada is offering a similar week-long rowing/sailing trip in the Gulf Islands July 21-30. (With a similar combination of good food, natural history, theological discussion, and great natural beauty). For any Regent students who want to participate, the Wilkinsons will be glad to conduct a guided study through the theological issues raised in that trip. (Cost: $750, plus 1-2 credit tuition if guided study option chosen) Contact the Wilkinsons or Rick Faw of A Rocha (rick.faw@arocha.org) for more details.

The Regent College events calendar is now up and running on UBC events (www.events.ubc.ca). This is an opportunity to promote Regent by making public Regent events known to the wider UBC community in a consistent way. All events that are taking place onsite (Regent or UBC), open to the public, and that serve to promote the reputation of Regent College should be posted. If you are hosting or planning events that meet these criteria, please take the time to fill out a Regent Public Event Details form. This can be done either by filling in the attached word document and emailing it to events@regent-college.edu.
