

From the Registrar...

February 27 is the deadline to register for a comprehensive exam/paper this term. If you are planning to take your comprehensive exam, please note: the written examination will be held during the 10th and 11th teaching weeks of term (March 30 – April 9). The Registrar's Office will notify you of the date and time of your written exam.

February 27 is the deadline to drop a course, change a course from credit to audit, or reduce the number of credit hours in a variable credit course. No refunds will be granted for these changes.

A reminder that the deadline for applying for Regent College Bursary and Scholarships is Monday, March 2nd. Applications are available on Regent's website, at the Student Services office or from the Financial Aid Officer.

On campus events...

Pray for UBC

Thursday 5th March, 7.30-9.30pm, at Regent
Join with other Christians on campus to worship together and seek God for UBC. This is an opportunity to hear from staff and students at UBC about what God is doing, what the enemy is doing, and to support our brothers and sisters in fellowship and prayer. Regent students, staff and faculty are all invited to come with the hope that we might bless and strengthen followers of Christ at UBC.

Pray for the World

Friday 6th - Saturday 7th March, 8pm-7am
This is the annual Regent night of prayer. Madi Simpson is looking for people with a heart for prayer to lead sessions of prayer for different nations and/or specific issues at local, national and/or global levels. She is also looking for artists and creative types to design stations for prayer.
Please contact her as soon as possible for more info, and if you would like to help: simpson.madi@gmail.com.
