

From the Registrar...

March 16 - 20 is Reading Week: the College is open, but no classes will be held.

March 20 is the last day for graduating students to submit MCS/ThM theses to the Registrar's Office for proofreading.

On campus happenings...

Pray for UBC

Thursday 5th March, 7.30-9.30pm, at Regent
Join with other Christians on campus to worship together and seek God for UBC. This is an opportunity to hear from staff and students at UBC about what God is doing, what the enemy is doing, and to support our brothers and sisters in fellowship and prayer. Regent students, staff and faculty are all invited to come with the hope that we might bless and strengthen followers of Christ at UBC.

Pray for the World

Friday 6th - Saturday 7th March, 8pm-7am
This is the annual Regent night of prayer. Madi Simpson is looking for people with a heart for prayer to lead sessions of prayer for different nations and/or specific issues at local, national and/or global levels. She is also looking for artists and creative types to design stations for prayer.
Please contact her as soon as possible for more info, and if you would like to help: simpson.madi@gmail.com.

Since Regent Col. started, the faculty spouses have committed to pray on the premises for students each week of the school year. We are continuing this tradition, but we have changed the method. Instead of attempting to phone each student and pray together at the school, we are now asking the students to contact us. If you have a request for prayer or thanksgiving at any time during the calendar year, please send these requests to: studentprayers@gmail.com

Off-campus happenings...

Volunteer Position - Event Director required to coordinate a Vancouver "RIDE FOR REFUGEES"

This is a growing national movement sponsored by International Teams to organize local cycling events to raise funds and awareness for local and global refugee concerns. The Ride is held in October and will be in 20+ cities across Canada and the US. See www.rideforrefugees.com. Local contact is James Grunau, james@grunau.ca or 604-329-8112.

Holy Mo tells the story of Moses – an introverted, stuttering anti-hero who unexpectedly outwits death and leads his people out of slavery. And just for fun, the tale of David is thrown in – a shepherd boy-cum-hero who kills a lion and a nine-foot giant, escapes the jealous wrath of Saul, and becomes King of the Jews...only to blow it by sleeping with a married woman he sees bathing on her roof-top.

Details: HOLY MO, by Lucia Frangione

When: Feb. 6-Mar. 7 Wed-Sat at 8pm, Sat at 2pm (Preview Feb. 5 - $11 in advance or PWYC at door)

Where: Pacific Theatre, 1420 West 12th Ave (at Hemlock St),
Tickets: $17-34 (GST incl.) – to reserve call 604.731.5518, or buy online at pacifictheatre.org, or at box office.
